Eligibility

The contest is intended only for STUDENTS OF DESIGN and/or ART. Please refer to resources listed here: https://www.un.org/en/holocaustremembrance/
Poster Creation

Theme: The designated theme for the 2012-2014 competition is “Keeping the Memory Alive — Journeys through the Holocaust”.

Size: Competitors must create a design for a 50cm by 70cm poster with a minimum DPI (resolution) of 300. A minimized electronic copy in A4 size (paper size) with DPI 72 must be submitted by the closing date.

Authenticity: All submissions must be original work of the artist.

Quantity: Only one poster is permitted per entry. Multiple poster sets are not permitted. Competitors may submit more than one design.

Description: Competitors are asked to submit an accompanying short description in English in 100 words or less for each entry. The description should explain the motivation behind the design. If any language is used in the design it should be in English.

Appropriateness: Any design deemed offensive will be eliminated by the local judges.

Prizes

Prizes will be awarded to the top three designs chosen by the international judges (not the local level judges) of the ITF poster competition in June 2013 as follows:

1st place — 500 Euros
2nd place — 300 Euros
3rd place — 200 Euros

Candidates should please submit entries to the following address: UNIS Vienna, P.O. Box 500, 1400 Vienna, Austria or email to unis@unvienna.org specifying “ITF International Poster Competition 2014” in the subject line.
