

Shadowing Programme 2018

Want to spend one day looking behind the scenes at the United Nations in Vienna? The Shadowing Programme taking place from 24 October to 24 November 2018, will offer students the opportunity to accompany employees of the United Nations and Vienna-based organizations for one entire working day and to gain exciting insights into the world of the Vienna International Centre (VIC).

Staff members from the following Vienna-based organizations are joining the Shadowing Programme 2018:

- International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) - www.iaea.org
- Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization (CTBTO) <https://www.ctbto.org/>
- United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) - <https://www.unodc.org/>
- United Nations Office for Outer Space Affairs (UNOOSA) – www.unoosa.org
- United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs (UNODA) – www.un.org/disarmament/vienna
- United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) Office in Austria – www.unhcr.at
- United Nations Information Service (UNIS) Vienna - www.unis.unvienna.org

How to participate

If you are a student who is enrolled in a Masters or a PhD programme at an Austrian university you are invited to apply by sending an email to the United Nations Information Service (UNIS) Vienna (unis@unvienna.org) with the following information:

- Name
- Nationality
- Telephone number
- Email address
- Field of study
- University
- Field of interest
- Name of the organizations you would like to “shadow” (first and second preference)
- If selected, what would you expect to get out of the Shadowing Programme? (max. 50 words)

PLEASE NOTE: The number of applications that can be accepted is limited, so you are encouraged to apply as early as possible. The deadline is 31 August 2018. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

The Shadowing Programme is not part of a recruiting process. It is a day spending with a UN staff member and gaining exciting insights into a work day at the UN in Vienna.

How to know if you are selected to participate

The selection of students who can participate in the Shadowing Programme will be made after all registrations have been collected. The successful candidates will be contacted per email.

The Shadowing Programme takes place to help mark United Nations Day (24 October). It is coordinated by UNIS Vienna and organized in cooperation with all participating Vienna-based organizations.

The United Nations in Vienna

Vienna is one of the four headquarters of the United Nations, along with New York, Geneva and Nairobi. Since its opening on 23 August 1979 the VIC has become home to several different UN organizations. More than 4,000 employees from over 100 countries work for the 16 international organizations and units of the UN in Vienna. About a third are Austrians.
