

United Nations Charity Soccer Tournament 2005

The General Assembly of the United Nations declared the year 2005 as International Year of Sport and Physical Education

As an initiative to promote not only the IYSPE but also the Millennium Development Goals of the United Nations, the United Nations Information Service Vienna is organizing a charity soccer tournament. All proceeds from this fund-raising event will be donated to an Austrian private initiative, Care4Africa, which aims to build wells all over Namibia.
